FILE UPLOADS: BIO, 2-PAGE RESUME (NOT A CURRICULUM VITAE), DIGITAL PHOTO, NOMINEE'S VIDEO

If your nominee is selected, information in the items you upload may be used for the awards gala ceremony program, media alerts, social media posts and other forums related to the Global FWN100™ Awards and the Filipina Women's Network. Please ensure information and images you submit are current, complete and accurately represents your nominee's professional and work background. It is IMPORTANT you upload your documents as required or nomination will be declined.

AWARD SELECTION CRITERIA: TELL US WHY YOUR NOMINEE IS INFLUENTIAL

The Filipina Women's Network's Global FWN100™ Award recognizes the remarkable contributions of Filipina women globally. To nominate a deserving Filipina professional, choose ONE award selection criteria to describe a significant accomplishment that showcases her influence and the far-reaching impact of her endeavors. This nomination is crucial—both an honor to her and an inspirational beacon to others. Provide a global imprint of your selected award criteria. We use a rigorous selection process to consider these key criteria to recognize extraordinary Filipina professionals and leaders. Responses must be clear, convincing, and accurate, as they heavily influence the award selection, accounting for up to 100 points.

54A) GLOBAL IMPACT: Nominate a Filipina who has faced the challenges of a project—failed or successful—and turned those lessons into global achievements. Describe one activity or project where she played a pivotal role, which must have occurred within the last two years. The activity must be verifiable during the selection and vetting period. How has this project globally impacted the field, and what tangible outcomes can be attributed to her leadership?

1) Global Reach: How did this initiative demonstrate a significant, measurable impact worldwide? Did it address a critical global issue or inspire positive change across borders? This could be a social enterprise, community program, or business initiative that has demonstrably created lasting change. Be sure to quantify the impact (e.g., number of people reached, percentage increase/decrease). Explain how the project's influence extends beyond the local or national level. Does it address a global challenge or inspire sustainable solutions in other countries? For example, did the project empower X number of women, raise Y dollars for a cause, or create a policy change impacting Z people globally? Explain how your nominee's actions have shaped discourse, inspired others, or influenced a specific field or industry globally. Provide quantifiable data or specific examples to support your claims. 2) Overcoming Challenges: Did your nominee face significant obstacles or setbacks in her work? How did she overcome them? Sharing stories of resilience demonstrates not only impact but also exceptional leadership qualities. (30 points)

54B) INNOVATION & TRANSFORMATION: Highlight a Filipina leader who has initiated, significantly managed, or enhanced a project with original, transformative, or breakthrough qualities. Provide an example from the last two years that showcases how her work has benefited professionals, her organization, industry, or community on a global scale. Discuss the project's success or challenges and the international implications of her innovative approach. Remember, verifiability is key. 1) Breaking New Ground: Did your nominee initiate an original project or approach or significantly transform an existing process or idea? How did her innovative approach benefit her industry, community, or colleagues globally? This project should be original, groundbreaking, or have a transformational impact on her profession, organization, industry, or local community. 2) Measurable Success: Outline the positive outcomes of the project. Did it achieve its goals? How did it benefit others? Quantify the impact whenever possible. Consider the project's scalability. Could this innovation be replicated in other contexts or globally? (30 points)

54C) SUSTAINABILITY: Focus on a sustainable project the nominee has spearheaded or contributed significantly to. Detail an initiative from the last two years demonstrating sustainability in practice within her country of residence with global repercussions. 1) Long-Term Vision: What lasting impacts has this project achieved, and how does it promise to continue benefiting people and the planet? How will the project's impact continue to be felt in the years to come? 2) Global Relevance: How can this project serve as a model for sustainable solutions in other countries or communities? (30 points)

54D) BONUS POINTS: Media Recognition: Has your nominee received significant media coverage for her work in the selected Award Criteria? This demonstrates the breadth of her influence and the public's recognition of her achievements. (10 points)

ANSWERING FULLY MATTERS: A THOROUGH AND COMPELLING RESPONSE TO THE AWARD SELECTION CRITERIA IS CRUCIAL FOR YOUR NOMINEE'S SUCCESSFUL SELECTION FOR THE AWARD.

It allows the selection committee to fully understand the scope of your nominee's accomplishments and their global significance. By providing concrete examples, data, and evidence of lasting impact, you significantly increase your nominee's chances of being recognized as the Most Influential Filipina Woman in the World.

55) NOMINEE'S Global Pitch Project

IGNITE YOUR POWER: A Guide to Crafting Your Global Pitch Project

Don't win an award. Make a lasting impact!

The Most Influential Filipina Woman in the World Award (Global FWN100™) isn't just recognition – it's a springboard to transform w in your community. This is your chance to become a global leader, not just for the title, but to empower Filipina women on the ground.

This prestigious award recognizes your achievements and empowers you to pay it forward, creating a lasting impact on your community.

Why You Matter: The Urgency to Act

Filipina women are the backbone of their communities. They are resourceful, resilient, and driven to succeed. Yet, challenges persist, such as,

- Lack of access to education or skills training
- Limited economic opportunities
- Limited access to healthcare
- Gender-based discrimination or violence

These issues hold back Filipina women's full potential, hindering not only their success but also the progress of the entire community. Your project can be a Spark of Change.

Become a Changemaker: Craft Your Global Pitch Project

This project proposal is your roadmap to becoming a champion for Filipina women. Here's how to create a winning proposal that will not only benefit your community but also showcase your leadership qualities:

1. Project Title: Choose a clear, concise title that reflects the essence of your project.
2. Social Problem To Be Addressed: Define the specific challenge you're tackling. Be clear about the impact on Filipina women in your area.
3. Purpose: State your project's overall goal. What positive change do you aim to create?
4. Theory of Change: Explain how your project will address the problem. This is your roadmap to success, outlining the steps involved in achieving your goals.
5. Scope: Define the project's reach. How many Filipina women will benefit? Is it focused on a specific geographic area or population segment?
6. Target Group/ Beneficiary: Identify the specific Filipina women who will directly benefit from your project.
7. Geographic Area Impacted: Specify the location where your project will be implemented.
8. Accountability: Demonstrate your commitment to transparency. How will you measure and report on your project's progress?
9. Duration of the Project: Define the timeframe for your project's implementation.
10. Results Framework: Outline the key performance indicators (KPIs) you will use to track your project's success.
11. Delivery and Partnership:
  - Delivery Model: Explain how you will implement your project. What activities are involved?
  - Partnership Arrangements: Highlight potential collaborators – investors, supporters, and fellow Global FWN100™ Awardees. Collaboration strengthens your project and increases its impact.
12. Marketing Plan: Develop a strategy to raise awareness about your project and attract support.
13. Risks: Identify potential challenges and outline your mitigation plan.
14. Financial Viability/ Sustainability: Demonstrate a realistic budget and explore potential funding sources for long-term project sustainability.
15. Monitoring and Evaluation Framework: Explain how you will monitor project progress, assess its effectiveness, and adapt your approach if needed.

Winning the Global FWN100™ Award is an incredible honor, but it's just the beginning. By crafting a compelling Global Pitch Project, you'll become a force for positive change in your community, inspiring other Filipina women to reach their full potential. This is your chance to make a real difference – seize it!

REMEMBER:

- Focus on impact: Highlight how your project will empower and uplift Filipina women.
- Be realistic but ambitious: Set achievable goals with a clear timeline.
- Showcase your leadership: Demonstrate your passion, expertise, and ability to mobilize your community.

You are not alone!

The Global FWN100™ network offers support and collaboration opportunities. Highlight potential partnerships with awardees you may know.

NOMINEE'S THREE REFERENCES (important and will be contacted)

FWN requires a 360-degree reference model: the 1st reference is a current boss or former boss; the 2nd reference is one Direct Report -someone who reported to her in her current or previous work or business if self-employed; the 3rd reference is a peer professional outside of her place of work, someone she may know in an organization they both belong or volunteer or a nominee's client. Please have the Nominee ALERT her three references so the Selection Committee can contact them to learn more about her background and accomplishments. If the Nominee's references do not respond, this will delay the approval decision. Nominators cannot serve as a reference.
